Nacton Parish Council - public land and buildings owned by the council

Asset	Description	Location	Managed by	Date acquired	Cost	Present use
Buildings
First World War memorial	Brick and concrete plinth with cross. Inscribed with the names of Nacton residents who fell in action in World War 1.	At junction of The Street and Ipswich Road.	Nacton Parish Council. Stands on land owned and managed by Suffolk County Council.	1920	£1	Memorial and wreaths laid on Armistice Day each year.
Land
Victoria Field	Public open space with trees and seating.	Opposite Nacton village hall, The Street.	Nacton Parish Council.	1913	£1	Some trees are part of Suffolk Coastal District Council's Scattered Orchard Scheme. Also houses Royal Oak planted to commemorate Queen Elizabeth II's Diamond Jubilee (2012). Occasionally used by school for outside events. Dogs banned from May 2018.
Poors Field	Approximately four acres of farmland		Poors Field trustees with a representative from Nacton Parish Council	c 1911	£1	In trust to provide help for anyone in need in the parish.
Paupers' Wood and Graveyard	Approximately two acres of woodland containing memorial to the deceased from Nacton workhouse.	Off The Street opposite Amberfield Drive.	Nacton Parish Council	c 1911	£1	Used by village residents.